The Bank has consideration for the following risk factors:

1. Capital adequacy - The Bank's CAR stood at 11.2% as at the end of September 2020. This is 2 percentage points above the prudential ratio of 8%. The Bank will continue to employ its efforts and strategies to remaining compliant with the prudential guidelines.
2. Growing excess liquidity - The Banking sector continued to experience excess liquidity as the rate of growth in deposits surpasses the rate of growth in loans. The Bank therefore employed strategic measures to manage and monitor the excess liquidity conditions by managing the interest cost and seeking safe avenues for utilizing the excess idle funds.
3. Highly competitive market for loans and advances - the market for loans and advances has grown more aggressive during the past year among the commercial banks and more so with the entrance of unregulated lenders to the market, who have been more flexible with their rates and offerings. This has impacted the yield on loans and loss of good loans to competitors.
4. Credit risk
The major factor currently affecting credit risk is the COVID-19 pandemic. The potential impact of this risk is temporarily reduced by the repayment moratorium offered to support residents of the ECCU in these unprecedented times. The moratorium was offered for an initial period of six (6) months to the end of September 2020 and has been extended for another twelve (12) months to September 2021.

10. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation.

Discuss the reporting issuer's financial condition covering aspects such as liquidity, capital resources, changes in financial condition and results of operations during the financial year of the filing. Discussions of liquidity and capital resources may be combined whenever the two topics are interrelated.

The Management's Discussion and Analysis should disclose sufficient information to enable investors to judge:

1. The quality of earnings;
2. The likelihood that past performance is indicative of future performance; and
3. The issuer's general financial condition and outlook.

It should disclose information over and above that which is provided in the management accounts and should not be merely a description of the movements in the financial statements in narrative form or an otherwise uninformative series of technical responses. It should provide management's perspective of the company that enables investors to view the business from the vantage point of management.

The discussion should focus on aspects such as liquidity; capital resources; changes in financial condition; results of operations; material trends and uncertainties and measures taken or to be taken to address unfavourable trends; key performance indicators; and non-financial indicators.

General Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition

The Bank's performance for the 2020 financial year was commendable given the current operating environment. Despite the challenges in the economy and the relentless competitive pressure the Bank maintained its proactive stance in respect of bottom line management and risk mitigation. The management of rising liquidity, maintenance of the capital above the required levels and the containment of the COVID-19 impact were the primary focus during the year.

The Bank continues to make significant strides in reducing its Non-Performing Loans through a combination of initiatives, which resulted in Non-Performing Loans Ratio of 0.26% as at September 30, 2020, which is 4.74 percentage points below the prudential guideline of 5% and a reduction of 0.29 percentage points from the corresponding period in 2019.

Sustained by better interest margins and growth in non-interest income, the Bank was realized an after tax profit of $9.63m for the 2020 financial year, compared to a profit of $9.67m in 2019; a decrease of 0.4%.

The Bank's Capital Adequacy Ratio and Solvency Ratio remain within regulatory requirements. The Capital Adequacy Ratio which should not be less than 8% stood at 11.2%. Similarly, the Solvency Ratio should not be less than 5%; was at 8.5%.

Total assets of the Bank grew by 11%, and now stand at $1.3b. This growth is reflected in increases in the Bank's loan portfolio which experienced an expansion of 7%, climbing from $509.8m in 2019 to $546.8m in 2020. Additionally, the Bank's investment portfolio grew by $6.6m or 2% over 2019. This total asset growth was funded by an expanded deposit base which increased by 9% from $1.1b to $1.2b.

The Bank remains committed to enhancing its business model and to strengthening its customer centric focus, while managing the market challenges and risks.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Provide a narrative explanation of the following (but not limited to):

- i) The reporting issuer's financial condition covering aspects such as liquidity, capital resources, changes in financial condition and results of operations.
- ii) Any known trends, demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will result in, or that are reasonably likely to result in, the issuer's liquidity increasing or decreasing in any material way. If a deficiency is identified, indicate the course of action that the reporting issuer has taken or proposes to take to remedy the deficiency.
- iii) The issuer's internal and external sources of liquidity and any material unused sources of liquid assets.
- iv) Provisions contained in financial guarantees or commitments, debt or lease agreements or other arrangements that could trigger a requirement for an early payment, additional collateral support, changes in terms, acceleration of maturity, or the creation of an additional financial obligation such as adverse changes in the issuer's financial ratios, earnings, cash flows or stock price or changes in the value of underlying, linked or indexed assets.
- v) Circumstances that could impair the issuer's ability to continue to engage in transactions that have been integral to historical operations or are financially or operationally essential or that could render that activity commercially impracticable such as the inability to maintain a specified level of earnings, earnings per share, financial ratios or collateral.
- vi) Factors specific to the issuer and its markets that the issuer expects will affect its ability to raise short-term and long-term financing, guarantees of debt or other commitment to third parties, and written options on non-financial assets.
- vii) The relevant maturity grouping of assets and liabilities based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date. Commentary should provide information about effective periods and the way the risks associated with different maturity and interest profiles are managed and controlled.
- viii) The issuer's material commitments for capital expenditures as of the end of the latest fiscal period, and indicate the general purposes of such commitments and the anticipated source of funds needed to fulfil such commitments.
- ix) Any known material trends, favorable or unfavorable, in the issuer's capital resources, including any expected material changes in the mix and relative cost of capital resources, considering changes between debt, equity and any off-balance sheet financing arrangements.

Discussion of Liquidity and Capital Resources

The low Loans to Deposit ratio is the product of a highly liquid market influenced by three (3) factors: (i) conservative stance by consumers and restrained central government spending, resulting in a rapid growth in the deposit portfolio, (ii) a very competitive loan market flanked by unregulated, flexible lenders and (iii) weak demand for credit due to subdued consumer and business confidence; and central government's fiscal restraint hence the deposit portfolio growth exceeding the rate of growth of the loan portfolio.

The Bank remains committed to managing the downside risks attendant to these conditions, through strategies geared at the efficient allocation of excess liquidity; and the growth of the loan portfolio in a competitive but weak market for credit.

The Bank reviews its exposure to financial risks and implements mitigating measures to minimize or reduce the negative impact of interest rate risk. This is reflected in the implementation of a deposit management strategy, resulting largely from the closure of several branches of foreign commercial banks on the island and the subsequent influx of large deposits.

The Capital Adequacy ratio (CAR) increased to 11.2%; up 1.3 percentage points from September 2019 position of the 9.9%. The ratio stands 3.2 percentage points greater than the prudential requirement of 8%.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

Provide a narrative explanation of the following (but not limited to):

- i) Disclosures concerning transactions, arrangements and other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons that are reasonably likely to materially affect liquidity or the availability of, or requirements for capital resources.
- ii) The extent of the issuer's reliance on off-balance sheet arrangements should be described fully and clearly where those entities provide financing, liquidity, market or credit risk support, or expose the issuer to liability that is not reflected on the face of the financial statements.
- iii) Off-balance sheet arrangements such as their business purposes and activities, their economic substance, the key terms and conditions of any commitments, the initial on-going relationship with the issuer and its affiliates and the potential risk exposures resulting from its contractual or other commitments involving the off-balance sheet arrangements.
- iv) The effects on the issuer's business and financial condition of the entity's termination if it has a finite life or it is reasonably likely that the issuer's arrangements with the entity may be discontinued in the foreseeable future.

The Bank's Off-balance sheet arrangements pertain specifically to undrawn loan commitment, guarantees and letters of credit, as is common in the normal course of commercial banking. This exposure is considered and monitored in the management of the Bank's liquidity position. There were no unusual off balance sheet arrangements during the year.

Results of Operations

In discussing results of operations, issuers should highlight the company's products and services, facilities and future direction. There should be a discussion of operating considerations and unusual events, which have influenced results for the reporting period. Additionally, any trends or uncertainties that might materially affect operating results in the future should be discussed.

Provide a narrative explanation of the following (but not limited to):

- i) Any unusual or infrequent events or transactions or any significant economic changes that materially affected the amount of reported income from continuing operations and, in each case, the extent to which income was so affected.
- ii) Significant components of revenues or expenses that should, in the company's judgment, be described in order to understand the issuer's results of operations.
- iii) Known trends or uncertainties that have had or that the issuer reasonably expects will have a material favorable or unfavorable impact on net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations.
- iv) Known events that will cause a material change in the relationship between costs and revenues (such as price increases, costs of labour or materials), and changes in relationships should be disclosed.
- v) The extent to which material increases in net sales or revenues are attributable to increases in prices or to increases in the volume or amount of goods or services being sold or to the introduction of new products or services.
- vi) Matters that will have an impact on future operations and have not had an impact in the past.
- vii) Matters that have had an impact on reported operations and are not expected to have an impact upon future operations
- viii) Off-balance sheet transactions, arrangements, obligations (including contingent obligations), and other relationships that have or are reasonably likely to have a current or future effect on the registrant's financial condition, changes in financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources.
- ix) Performance goals, systems and, controls,

Overview of Results of Operations

For the financial year ended September 30, 2020 the Bank Net Profit After Tax is recorded at $9.6m; a slight decrease from the $9.7m outturn as at September 30, 2019. This performance was driven by effective credit risk management along with consistent yields on a high quality and expanding credit portfolio, favourable returns on the investment portfolio, and effective management of the interest expense considering the value of the deposit portfolio. Such a performance demonstrates the Bank's commitment and ability to manage and adjust to the risks within the local and global environment.

Total Revenue increased by 0.5% or $0.3m from $65.3m in September 2019 to $65.6M in September 2020.

Total Expenditure stood at $52.5m, which is greater than last year by $0.5m.

The Bank was also successful in its concentrated approach towards the containment of the non-performing loan portfolio, through the attainment of a NPL ratio well below the prudential standard at the end of financial year. These efforts are expected to continue throughout the 2021 financial to sustain the ratio well below the benchmark.
