INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN FORM ECSRC-K

1. Business.

Provide a description of the developments in the main line of business including accomplishments and future plans. The discussion of the development of the reporting issuer's business need only include developments since the beginning of the financial year for which this report is filed.

Notwithstanding the multiplicity of challenges with which the Group was confronted in the 2022 Financial year, there is reason to be optimistic as we move forward. With this optimism, the Group continues to seize the many opportunities available, and position itself in the upcoming years to provide shareholders with levels of growth and returns on their investment that are consistent with an efficiently run operation, such as ours.

On July 15, 2022, the Bank was successful in receiving Regulatory approval to acquire the assets and assume the liabilities of CIBC/FCIB branch operations in St. Vincent & the Grenadines. This significant accomplishment came on the heels of a series of negotiations and consultations with relevant parties. We recognize that this integration initiative no doubt comes with risks, but well-managed risks provides opportunities. These opportunities include: potential revenue and profitability growth; diversification of the loans and deposit portfolio; and development of additional products better suited to the needs of our customers amidst an economy transitioning to greater reliance on digital transactions.

We are acutely aware of the inherent risks associated with an integration, and as such, we will continue to manage those risks by being compliant with the Banking Act, guided by the Regulator's requirements. Further, we will seek the resources needed to resolve in a timely manner any identified deficiencies in banking operations, and to implement any other risk mitigating strategies.

During the past financial year, the Group was faced with the negative impacts of the periodic increases in the Federal Reserve Funds Rates and the impact of the on-going war in Ukraine, which contributed to high inflation rates locally and internationally. Notwithstanding these setbacks, the Group more than doubled its profit before tax over the prior year, from $2.6 million to $5.9 million. This was however reduced by tax obligations, resulting in 2022 net profit of $2.9 million and earnings per share remaining at the same level as the prior year at $0.19.

With astute and prudent management of our assets, the Group increased its asset base by 2.2%, from $1.294 billion 2021 to $1.323 billion in 2022, while maintaining an acceptable, albeit slightly above the minimum regulatory asset quality requirement as measured by a NPL ratio of 6.5%. The Group tenaciously pursues measures to improve the asset quality and the continued protection of its assets, and to date, has accumulated provisions to adequately cover the non-performing loans. Importantly, the Group as in prior financial years, continues to maintain its strong capital adequacy ratio, reported at 24.6% as at December 31, 2022.

In the near future, the Board will be developing a new strategic plan for the period 2024 to 2026. This new plan will encompass strategies that will address: the recently completed integration process; the demand by our customers for seamless digital products and platforms; the expectation of the shareholders for increased value; and other initiatives focused on fulfilling the mission statement of BOSVG.

The Board will continue to provide the strategic direction for the Bank and oversight

7. Disclosure about Risk Factors.

Provide a discussion of the risk factors that may have an impact on the results from operations or on the financial conditions. Avoid generalised statements. Typical risk factors include untested products, cash flow and liquidity problems, dependence on a key supplier or customer, management inexperience, nature of business, absence of a trading market (specific to the securities of the reporting issuer), etc. Indicate if any risk factors have increased or decreased in the time interval between the previous and current filing.

The risks within the environment is profoundly impacted by global conditions. At the beginning of 2022, when the world was looking forward to the end of the Covid-19 pandemic, it was disrupted again by new shock events created by the war in Russia/Ukraine, ongoing climate change and the global inflation crisis. Despite the heightened external changes, the Group continued to employ best practices, robust governance and risk management frameworks to ensure the Group's operations remain secure and stable.

The Group's sustainable financial performance and delivery of a profit before tax of $5.9 million was possible through effective risk management. The Group's risk management, balance sheet management, internal controls and defense lines validated the effectiveness of the Group's Enterprise Risk Management Framework (ERMF) ensuring the protection of shareholders value in 2022 as outlined below:

- Ensured a strong risk culture was maintained through a robust ERMF.
- Reviewed and approved the adjustments to the Group's IFRS 9 model and assessed the adequacy of provisions for expected credit losses held against the credit portfolios.
- Tracked and monitored the key drivers that impacted asset quality, credit risk weighted assets, liquidity and capital measures.
- Provided oversight of management overlays and incorporated emerging risks.
- Progressed with comprehensive reviews of policies and regulatory reporting programs to strengthen our processes and controls.
- Continued to safeguard against cyber threats and other malicious threats and the compromise of data privacy.
- Monitored the strategies to ensure a smooth transition of the CIBC FCIB book of business.
- Continued to develop our internal capabilities and engaged external talent as required to support our risk management.
- Invested in infrastructure and technology to keep abreast with emerging regulatory changes.

As various emerging risks continue to grow in importance the Group will remain vigilant in monitoring the potential impact, and scan the environment for triggers as our response is critical in ensuring our survival and sustainable growth. In achieving this, in 2023 the Group will focus on:

- Optimizing balance sheet portfolios and risk weighted assets;
- Continue to focus on early identification strategies regarding distressed portfolios, concentration risks and proactive management of watchlist customers.
- Closely monitor the performance of the CIBC FCIB portfolios against the Group's Business Plan
- Monitor and assess the impact of the implementation of Basel 2 & 3 reforms on the balance sheet.
- Develop and recommend to the Board the policy framework for ICAAP.

8. Changes in Securities and Use of Proceeds.

10. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation.

Discuss the reporting issuer's financial condition covering aspects such as liquidity, capital resources, changes in financial condition and results of operations during the financial year of the filing. Discussions of liquidity and capital resources may be combined whenever the two topics are interrelated.

The Management's Discussion and Analysis should disclose sufficient information to enable investors to judge:

1. The quality of earnings;
2. The likelihood that past performance is indicative of future performance; and
3. The issuer's general financial condition and outlook.

It should disclose information over and above that which is provided in the management accounts and should not be merely a description of the movements in the financial statements in narrative form or an otherwise uninformative series of technical responses. It should provide management's perspective of the company that enables investors to view the business from the vantage point of management.

General Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition

The discussion should focus on aspects such as liquidity; capital resources; changes in financial condition; results of operations; material trends and uncertainties and measures taken or to be taken to address unfavourable trends; key performance indicators; and non-financial indicators.

As the premier financial institution in the country, the Bank of St. Vincent & the Grenadines Ltd. and its subsidiary (the Group) continue to impact the lives of a wide cross section of the Vincentian community by providing a wide range of banking services to our customers including those once referred to as the "unbankable" segments of our population.

Despite the global economic and geopolitical uncertainties, the Group had another positive financial performance and recorded an after-tax profit of $2.96 million, which was similar to that achieved in the 2021 financial year. The financial performance for 2022 reflects the realities of an institution recovering from an environment ravished by the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and the optimism of an expected recovery. Buoyed by a projected growth in the local economy of 6% and tempered by the ongoing Russia/ Ukraine war, increasing market volatility, spiraling food and energy prices, the Bank recorded a profit before tax of $5.9 million.

In achieving this profitability, BOSVG partnered with the private and public sectors in delivering digital solutions to our customers during the 2022 financial year. One of the Group's most notable non-financial achievement was the partnership with the Government in distributing over 17,000 debit cards under a World Bank funded program to support those most impacted by the volcanic eruption of 2021.

During the year, the Group invested significantly in data security, and on December 14 2022, the institution gained the noble achievement of being ISO/IEC27001:2013 certified. Cognizant of the increased cyber and other security threats, the Bank also undertook a comprehensive review of its security posture by implementing an aggressive Information Security Management System program. This is supported by Information security policies and procedures aligned to the Cybersecurity framework (NIST) and COBIT 2019 best practices.

The Group's exposure to COVID-19 customer support loans and advances declined considerably from the peak period June 2020. Additionally, the provisions which were driven by management overlays have provided sufficient buffer against shocks from vulnerable sectors following the termination of relief measures. The Group remains committed to providing repayment assistance and sustainable support to customers who may still be vulnerable.

Notwithstanding the challenges of the last financial year, BOSVG and its subsidiary, continued to maintain a conservative and robust risk management posture, regularly reviewing and adapting its risk management policies and practices to respond to the operating environment. In the year ahead, as the Group pursues its growth and value creation strategies, risk management will continue to be a key focus to ensure that these strategies remain aligned with its risk appetite, vision and mission.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Provide a narrative explanation of the following (but not limited to):

- i) The reporting issuer's financial condition covering aspects such as liquidity, capital resources, changes in financial condition and results of operations.
- ii) Any known trends, demands, commitments, events or uncertainties that will result in, or that are reasonably likely to result in, the issuer's liquidity increasing or decreasing in any material way. If a deficiency is identified, indicate the course of action that the reporting issuer has taken or proposes to take to remedy the deficiency.
- iii) The issuer's internal and external sources of liquidity and any material unused sources of liquid assets.
- iv) Provisions contained in financial guarantees or commitments, debt or lease agreements or other arrangements that could trigger a requirement for an early payment, additional collateral support, changes in terms, acceleration of maturity, or the creation of an additional financial obligation such as adverse changes in the issuer's financial ratios, earnings, cash flows or stock price or changes in the value of underlying, linked or indexed assets.
- v) Circumstances that could impair the issuer's ability to continue to engage in transactions that have been integral to historical operations or are financially or operationally essential or that could render that activity commercially impracticable such as the inability to maintain a specified level of earnings, earnings per share, financial ratios or collateral
- vi) Factors specific to the issuer and its markets that the issuer expects will affect its ability to raise short-term and long-term financing, guarantees of debt or other commitment to third parties, and written options on non-financial assets.
- vii) The relevant maturity grouping of assets and liabilities based on the remaining period at the balance sheet date to the contractual maturity date. Commentary should provide information about effective periods and the way the risks associated with different maturity and interest profiles are managed and controlled.
- viii) The issuer's material commitments for capital expenditures as of the end of the latest fiscal period, and indicate the general purposes of such commitments and the anticipated source of funds needed to fulfil such commitments.
- ix) Any known material trends, favorable or unfavorable, in the issuer's capital resources, including any expected material changes in the mix and relative cost of capital resources, considering changes between debt, equity and any off-balance sheet financing arrangements.

Discussion of Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Group's liquidity position remained strong throughout 2022. The Group remains well funded, with adequate liquidity buffers to meet both regulatory requirements and internal risk targets with a liquidity coverage ratio of 40%. The Group continues to leverage its deposit portfolio to ensure appropriate duration and minimize concentration risk while minimizing funding costs. Due to liquidity conditions, the Group's investment activity increased, which resulted in larger holdings of securities and bank deposits and a related increase in highly liquid assets.

Contingent funding plans, forecasting assumptions as well as key risk metrics and early warning indicators continue to be reassessed for appropriateness considering market volatility and geopolitical conditions. Additionally, the capital adequacy

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

Provide a narrative explanation of the following (but not limited to):

- i) Disclosures concerning transactions, arrangements and other relationships with unconsolidated entities or other persons that are reasonably likely to materially affect liquidity or the availability of, or requirements for capital resources.
- ii) The extent of the issuer's reliance on off-balance sheet arrangements should be described fully and clearly where those entities provide financing, liquidity, market or credit risk support, or expose the issuer to liability that is not reflected on the face of the financial statements.
- iii) Off-balance sheet arrangements such as their business purposes and activities, their economic substance, the key terms and conditions of any commitments, the initial on-going relationship with the issuer and its affiliates and the potential risk exposures resulting from its contractual or other commitments involving the off-balance sheet arrangements.
- iv) The effects on the issuer's business and financial condition of the entity's termination if it has a finite life or it is reasonably likely that the issuer's arrangements with the entity may be discontinued in the foreseeable future.

There were no material off balance sheet arrangements at reporting period. Undrawn credit commitment amounted to $33.4 million compared to $28.9 million in the prior year.

Results of Operations

In discussing results of operations, issuers should highlight the company's products and services, facilities and future direction. There should be a discussion of operating considerations and unusual events, which have influenced results for the reporting period. Additionally, any trends or uncertainties that might materially affect operating results in the future should be discussed.

Provide a narrative explanation of the following (but not limited to):

- i) Any unusual or infrequent events or transactions or any significant economic changes that materially affected the amount of reported income from continuing operations and, in each case, the extent to which income was so affected.
- ii) Significant components of revenues or expenses that should, in the company's judgment, be described in order to understand the issuer's results of operations.
- iii) Known trends or uncertainties that have had or that the issuer reasonably expects will have a material favorable or unfavorable impact on net sales or revenues or income from continuing operations.
- iv) Known events that will cause a material change in the relationship between costs and revenues (such as price increases, costs of labour or materials), and changes in relationships should be disclosed.

Results of Operations

For the year ending December 31, 2022, profit after tax of $2.9 million was comparable with the $2.8 million earned in the previous year. Earnings per share was relatively stable at $0.19 corresponding to a return on equity of 0.2%. The positive results took place despite a negative change in fair value adjustments on the investment portfolio of $7.4 million. Hereby, reflecting strong improvement in transactional activities, higher yields on earning assets and improvement in expected credit losses.

Net interest income

The Group's strategy to capitalize on opportunities to invest in high yield instruments even as liquidity tightened globally, resulted in an increase in total interest income moving from $50.8 million to $54.4 million, year on year, this represents an increase of $3.6 million or 7%.

Interest income on loans and advances increased marginally over the previous financial year. This marginal increase was consistent with the Group's continued efforts to rehabilitate the portion of the loans and advances portfolio that was negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic.

During the financial year, and coming out of one of the most consequential periods in modern history, the Group continued its efforts to reprice its funding instruments in line with market rates. As such, there was a reduction in total interest expenses of $1.0 million or 6%.

Non-Interest Income

As business and consumer sentiments improved globally, the local economy experienced its highest- level growth in almost three years. The increased level of economic activity benefitted the Group and resulted in non-interest income growing by $6.0 million or 35% over the previous financial year. Additionally, the Group continued with its strategy to digitalize its products and services thereby providing further opportunities for growth in non- interest income categories.

Operating Expenses

Total expenses increased by $4.5 million or 11% over the comparative period and was mainly driven by several factors including the Group's preparation for the acquisition of CIBCFCIB's book of business. This resulted in an increase in professional fees of $0.5 million or 42% as several services had to be procured externally. Additionally, the global increase in fuel prices contributed to the increase of $0.2 million in utilities. The increase in interest levy expenses of $0.4 million or 6.6% was consistent with growth in the deposit portfolio, while the increase in credit card expenses of $1.4 million or 65% and commission and fees expense of $0.4 million or 19 % were volume related. The increase in bank and other licenses was related to the expansion of the Bank's digital footprint as well as costs associated with minimizing the risk of cyber and other security threats.

Asset Quality

As the moratorium programs unwind across the region with the COVID-19 pandemic reaching an endemic stage, there was the real possibility of a significant deterioration in asset quality. However, this did not materialize and as such, the Group's non-performing loan ratio of 6.5% remained relatively consistent compared to the previous financial year. During the 2021 financial year, given the uncertainties in the general economic environment at the time, BOSVG and its subsidiary, introduced several management overlays to its IFRS 9 loan loss provisioning model.

These overlays led to an increase in the overall level of loan loss provisioning. With the forecasted improvements in general economic conditions, notwithstanding the continued impact of Russia/ Ukraine war, several of the management overlays were removed which contributed to a write back in loan loss provisioning of $3.5 million. Despite the provisioning write back, the Group's loan provisioning as percentage of non- performing loans was 71%, excluding loan loss provision reserves and 84% when this is included.

The Group's exposure to credit risk arising from its loan portfolio is approximately 50.5% of its total assets. Within the loan portfolio, approximately 72.9% of the portfolio is categorized as stage 1, Stage 2 represents 20.6% and Stage 3 6.5%.

Liquidity and Capital

The Group's liquid assets to deposits ratio at 40% remained well in excess of the minimum ratio regulatory benchmark requirements. The Group consistently conducts liquidity stress testing in accordance with its internal policy framework to ensure that it maintains sufficient liquidity buffers.

Additionally, the capital adequacy ratio of 25%, remains well in excess of the minimum regulatory guidelines. During the financial year, the Group, in preparation for the implementation of the Basel II/III framework, modelled several stress testing scenarios to assess the impact on capital post implementation. The implementation of this framework is not expected to have a material impact on overall capital.

As the regulatory environment evolves, the Group will continue to assess its capital buffers in accordance with regulatory requirements and take the appropriate actions, if deemed necessary.

Balance Sheet Review

The total assets of $1.323 billion registered a $29.0 million growth over the previous financial year. Asset growth was mainly concentrated in the investment and loans and advances portfolios and was funded by growth in deposits of $31.0 million or 3%. Total equity of $141 million increased by $7 million or 5% over the previous financial year mainly as result of $3.5 million or 30% increase in the fair value of the Group's unquoted equities.

Loans and Advances

The Group's loan and a advances portfolio grew marginally by 1.5% in the 2022 financial period, but more importantly, the quality of assets was largely maintained. During the review period, the focus was primarily on rehabilitating loans impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic and preventing large scale migration of loans to non- performing status. Notwithstanding the marginal increase in the non- performing loan portfolio, our objectives were achieved for the most part.

Investments

The Group's investment portfolio grew by $20.2 million or 12%. Growth in the in the portfolio was concentrated in instruments which are not susceptible to current market volatility. Despite the unrealized losses of $5.6 million, the Group remains optimistic regarding the medium to long-term recovery prospects in the financial markets and will continue to manage the portfolio in accordance with the conservative posture inherent in its policies.

Due to Customers

The total deposits of $1.112 billion grew by 2.9% over the previous financial year. Growth in the portfolio was mainly in the category of demand deposits. We continued to employ strategies to effectively manage the Group's cost of funds and as such was able to reduce total interest expenses.

Taxation

Taxation was $2.9 million on a statutory basis, with a statutory effective tax rate of 30 % compared to a tax credit of $1.6 million in 2021 and was primarily driven by traded losses released in deferred taxes of $1.2 million.

Conclusion

Looking ahead, in 2023 the local economy is expected to grow by 6% in line with the gradual recovery in the global economy. As COVID-19 moves from a pandemic to an endemic phase, several key factors such as the resumption of tourism activities, increases in construction and the release of pent-up demand from prolonged periods of restrictions are expected to contribute to the economic growth. These factors along with positive consumer sentiments are expected to be further bolstered by expansionary Government initiatives announced in the 2023 Budget. Overall, banking system activities are projected to grow, supported by improving economic conditions.

We approach the 2023 financial year with renewed optimism and confidence. We will be guided by the principles of quality customer service, dedication to our people and country and building a sound financial institution. We recognize that the strategic progress made in the 2022 financial year is the outcome of the trust of our customers, our employees, resilience, regulators and shareholders. To our shareholders, Board of Directors, customers and staff a heartfelt thank you for your support in 2022.
